Tips for Successful Applications

(from www.openingdoorsbc.com)

1. Each school has its own deadlines. Find out what they are.
2. Make sure you have the right courses for admission.
3. Collect your information before you log on at APPLYBC. You need your PEN number and you may need your SIN number as well as contact information.
4. Check everything before you click "submit".
5. Your application will not be processed until your payment has been received.
6. If you move, change phone number, etc. call the school directly.

Capilano University

Capilano has a variety of excellent programs in the areas of academics, fine arts and applied skills. Arts and Sciences (formerly University Transfer) offers more than 700 university transfer courses in a wide range of academic areas. Students can transfer at the first or second year level to a variety of schools including UBC, SFU, UVic, UNBC, TRU. The BC Transfer Guide (www.bctransferguide.ca) is a useful tool to see which courses can transfer to which schools. There are also transfer programs for Commerce, and Engineering. Capilano also has a variety of programs in business, health, recreation, and fine arts (e.g. Bachelors of Business Admin., Bachelor of Tourism Management, Mountain Bike Operations Certificate, Human Kinetics Diploma, Interactive Design Diploma, Early Childhood Care and Education Diploma, Motion Picture Arts Diploma, Musical Theatre Diploma). Deadline for early admission is March 31.
