

LAST CHANCE CLINICS

Please bring your care card*

H1N1 and Seasonal Flu Community Clinics

H1N1 vaccine has arrived on the Sunshine Coast and clinics are scheduled.

There will be enough vaccine for every person who needs it and wants it.

ALL ARE WELCOME

H1N1, Seasonal Flu, and Pneumo Clinic Dates, Times, Locations

Date	Time	Location	Eligible Groups
Tues., Dec. 1	10 am – 5 pm	Madeira Park Legion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All school-aged children age 5 to 18 years • Healthy adults age 19-64 years • All health care workers working in acute and long term facilities, home care and public health, Physicians, Dental Staff, Contracted staff, volunteers • First responders (paramedics, police, fire fighters) • Adults over 65 years • Infants, children & adults, age 6 months to 64 years with a chronic illness • Pregnant women • Residents of remote and isolated settings and communities • First Nations People • Children age 6 months to age 5 years • Household contacts & care providers of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ infants < 6 months of age ○ persons who are immununocompromised
Thurs., Dec. 3	10 am – 3 pm	Sechelt Seaside Centre
Fri., Dec. 4	10 – 5 pm	Gibsons Legion
Thurs., Dec. 10	12 – 4 pm	Sechelt Health Unit 5571 Inlet Ave.
Fri., Dec. 11	12 – 4 pm	Gibsons Health Unit 494 South Fletcher
Tues., Dec. 15	10 am – 5 pm	Madeira Park Legion
Thurs., Dec. 17	1 pm – 4 pm	Sechelt Health Unit
Fri, Dec. 18	1 pm – 4 pm	Gibsons Health Unit

For more information:

<http://www.ImmunizeBC.ca>

<http://www.bccdc.ca>

http://www.gov.bc.ca/govt/swine_flu.html

<http://fightflu.ca>

Sunshine Coast Flu Information Lines (recorded message)

Gibsons/Roberts Creek: 604-886-5606

Sechelt/Pender 604-885-8714